VOLUME CONTENTS

NO. 1 FEBRUARY

SYMPOSIUM REPORT

A. MUNRO. The biological significance of the MHC 1

ORIGINAL ARTICLES

F. R. GOÑI AND B. FRANGIONE. Association between human IgM autoantibodies and κ chain allotypes. 15

M. KURPISZ, N. FERNANDEZ, M. WITT, I. KOWALIK, G. A. SZYMCZYNSKI AND H. FESTENSTEIN. HLA expression on human germinal cells 23

Y.-N. HARADA, J.-I. HAYAKAWA, E. NODA AND T. TOMITA. A gene locus controlling a serum protein migrating electrophoretically in the B region of mice and detected by using a strain derived from the Japanese wild mouse (Mus musculus molossinus) 33

V. R. SUTTON, G. L. WIJFFELS, I. D. WALKER, P. M. HOGARTH AND I. F. C. MCKENZIE. Genetic and biochemical characterization of antigens encoded by the Ly-24 (Pgp-1) locus 43

G. BYRNS, A. L. CRUMP, G. LALONDE, D. BERNOCO AND D. F. ANTCZAK. The ELY-1 locus controls a di-allelic alloantigenic system on equine lymphocytes 59

SHORT COMMUNICATION

D. N. PROPERT AND V. JANARDHANA. Occurrence of the immunoglobulin haplotypes $Gm^{1,17;23;21}$ and $Gm^{1,2,17;23;21}$ in a sample of Australian caucasians 73

NO. 2/3 APRIL/JUNE

WORKSHOP CONTRIBUTIONS FROM THE 6TH INTERNATIONAL IMMUNOLOGY CONGRESS, TORONTO 79

P. J. ROBINSON, I. LEFKOVITS AND K. FISCHER LINDAHL. Molecular complexity of Qa-2 antigens demonstrated by two-dimensional gel electrophoresis 81

R. L. DAWKINS, E. MARTIN, P. H. KAY, M. J. GARLEPP, A. N. WILTON AND M. S. STUCKEY. Heterogeneity of steroid 21-hydroxylase genes in classical congenital adrenal hyperplasia 89

T. SASAZUKI AND S. MATSUSHITA. MHC-linked immune suppression genes determine the phenotype of immune response to some natural antigens in humans. 99

J. P. DEANS, J. F. KROWKA, T. MOSMANN AND L. M. PILARSKI. Antigen-specific helper factor reacts with antibody to the T-cell receptor. 103

O. AXELROD AND E. MOZES. Mode of action of antigen-specific T-cell helper factors secreted by a T-cell line and clones 109

G. L. Asherson, M. Zembala, G. Colonna Romano and V. Colizzi. General considerations in the interpretation of I-J genetic restrictions: evidence that the antigen-binding chain of antigen-specific T-suppressor factor has two recognition sites for members of the I-J hierarchy 117

M. Nishimura and H. Miyamoto. Immunopathological influence of the A^y, db, ob and nu genes placed on the inbred NOD background as murine models for human type I diabetes 127

Original Articles

S. Husby, F. Schultz Larsen and P. Hyltoft Petersen. Genetic influence on the serum levels of naturally occurring human IgG antibodies to dietary antigens . 131

V. Stenszky, C. Balázs, E. Kraszits, F. Juhasz, L. Kozma, G. Balázs and N. R. Farid. Association of goitrous autoimmune thyroiditis with HLA-DR3 in Eastern Hungary 143

G. A. Hadley, M. E. Snider and D. Steinmuller. Strain differences in the expression of the EPA-l-restricting element 149

Short Communication

K. Mizuno, T. Inomata, S. Tsuchimoto, Y. Matsuno, T. Niiyama, H. Fujii, T. Natori and M. Aizawa. Ir gene for bovine insulin in the rat maps to RT1.B_β 159

List

G. W. Butcher. A list of monoclonal antibodies specific for alloantigens of the rat 163

Book Reviews 177

NO. 4/5 AUGUST/OCTOBER

Review

M. J. Taussig. Recent research in organization and expression of immunoglobulin V region genes 179

Original Articles

L. I. Sakkas, A. G. Demaine, R. W. Vaughan, K. I. Welsh and G. S. Panayi. The association of DNA variants at or near the IgH locus with rheumatoid arthritis . . 189

L. Hammarström, G. G. de Lange and C. I. E. Smith. IgA2 allotypes determined by restriction fragment length polymorphism in IgA deficiency. Re-expression of the silent A2m(2) allotype in the children of IgA-deficient patients 197

H.-C. Chiu, R.-P. Hsieh, K.-H. Hsieh and T.-P. Hung. Association of HLA-DRw9 with myasthenia gravis in Chinese 203

H. Dunckley, P. A. Gatenby, B. Hawkins, S. Naito and S. W. Serjeantson. Deficiency of C4A is a genetic determinant of systemic lupus erythematosus in three ethnic groups 209

T. Crepaldi, D. Peruccio, M. Lecchi, L. Resegotti, M. Grazia Guerra, A. Funaro and P. Richiardi. New HLA class I-like alloantigens expressed on blast cells 219

M. I. Kamboh and R. E. Ferrell. Genetic studies of low-abundance human plasma proteins. VII. Heterogeneity of the Cl_s subcomponent of the first complement component 231

M. L. Tyan. Vitamin A-enhanced cleft palate susceptibility associated with H-2 . . . 239

P. H. Kay, R. L. Dawkins, A. T. Bowling and D. Bernoco. Heterogeneity and linkage of equine C4 and steroid 21-hydroxylase genes 247

W. W. Socha, P. Rouger, J. Ruffié and J. Moor-Jankowski. Complexity of the Rh antigen demonstrated by comparative tests using antisera of human and primate origins 255

Short Communication

K. Kishi, T. Yasuda and M. Uchida. A Japanese patient with the rare Rh_{null} phenotype of the 'regulator type' 261

Book Reviews 265

Announcement 271

NO. 6 DECEMBER

Original Articles

D. B. A. Symons, C. A. Clarkson, C. P. Milstein, N. R. Brown and D. Beale. DNA sequence analysis of two bovine immunoglobulin C_H gamma pseudogenes . . 273

J. Partanen. Association between restriction fragment length variants of the complement C4 genes and MHC haplotypes 285

C. Caruso, P. Lo Campo, C. Botindari and M. A. Modica. HLA antigens in Sicilian patients affected by chronic myelogenous leukaemia 295

D. K. Male, G. Pryce and G. W. Butcher. Serological evidence for a defect in RT1.B (I-A) expression by the BDIX rat strain 301

M. Pravenec, V. Křen and P. Klír. Assignment of the Es-6 locus to linkage group VII of the rat (Rattus norvegicus) by the use of HXB recombinant inbred rat strains . . 313

Short Communication

R. B. Ashman. Murine candidiasis. III. Host inflammatory responses are regulated in part by class I MHC genes 317
